

To whom it may concern,

I would vehemently oppose any intrusion in my home of these solicitations that occur early on weekends and often late in the evening. I care for a disabled individual and these calls often interfere with care by unnecessary and unwanted disruptions. Please safeguard my freedom of speech and pursuit of liberty and happiness by allowing me the right to permit what communication my home receives.

Thanks in advance for your attention,

Susan E. Shourds